(the “Company”) increased the size of the Board from six directors to seven directors and appointed Dennis Helling as a director of the Board. Dr. Helling will serve as a Class II director, to serve until the 2018 annual meeting of stockholders or until his earlier resignation, retirement or other termination of service. It is contemplated that Dr. Helling may serve on certain committees of the Company’s Board, but no such committee appointments have been made at this time. The Board has determined that Dr. Helling is an independent director in accordance with applicable rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) and the Nasdaq Stock Market. Dr. Helling will be compensated in accordance with the non-employee director compensation program of the Board, as described in the Company’s final prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), on September 29, 2016 in connection with the Company’s initial public offering completed in October 2016 (the “IPO”).

Dr. Helling, 68, has been a Clinical Professor at the University of Colorado Skaggs School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences since 1992. Dr. Helling also served as President of the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education, a national agency responsible for the accreditation of professional degree programs in pharmacy, from 2002 through 2004 and the American Pharmacists Association Foundation, a nonprofit organization whose mission is to improve health by inspiring philanthropy, research, and innovation that advances pharmacists’ patient care services, from 2010 through 2012. Over his career, Dr. Helling has been actively involved in hospice and palliative care, serving on the boards of Care Synergy since 2015 and as Vice-Chair of The Denver Hospice Board of Directors since 2009. Dr. Helling has also chaired the Working Group on Pharmacy Reimbursement in the Federation of International Pharmacy. Dr. Helling was awarded the highest national honor in pharmacy, the Remington Honor Medal, in 2013. The Board believes that Dr. Helling’s experience in hospice care and pharmacy services and prior director experience will make him a valuable member of our Board.

In connection with his appointment, Dr. Helling will enter into the Company’s standard indemnification agreement, the form of which was previously filed with the Company’s Registration Statement on Form S-1 (Registration No. 333-208857) in connection with the IPO.
